

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Topic	AQA Poetry Anthology AQA Eng Lang Paper 1, Section A	AQA GCSE English Literature Set Text: A Christmas Carol AQA Eng Lang Section B	AQA GCSE English Literature Set Text: An Inspector Calls AQA Poetry Anthology AQA Eng Lang Paper 2 Section A	AQA GCSE English Literature Set Text: An Inspector Calls AQA Eng Lang Paper 2 Section B	AQA GCSE English Literature: Romeo and Juliet Lang Paper 1	AQA GCSE English Literature: Romeo and Juliet and A Christmas Carol Lang Paper 1 Spoken Language study
Topic Objectives	Introduce a variety of poetry which explores different concepts of love and relationships throughout history and cultures, building on the work done in KS3. AO1: Identify information in a text AO2: Analyse language and structure AO4: Evaluate texts	Building on work done in KS3 on 19th Century novel. AO1: Respond critically to a text and use textual references AO2: Analysis of methods. AO3: Evaluation of viewpoint and context. AO5: Communicate and organise information clearly. AO5: Technical accuracy	AO1: Respond critically to a text and use textual references AO2: Analysis of methods. AO3: Evaluation of viewpoint and context. AO1 • Identify and interpret explicit and implicit information and ideas. • Select and synthesise evidence from different texts. AO2 • Explain, comment on and analyse how writers use language and structure to achieve effects and influence readers. AO3 • Compare writers' ideas and perspectives, as well as how these are conveyed, across two or more texts. AO4 • Evaluate texts critically and support this with appropriate textual references.	AO1: Respond critically to a text and use textual references AO2: Analysis of methods. AO3: Evaluation of viewpoint and context. AO5: Communicate and organise information clearly. AO5: Technical accuracy	AO1: Respond critically to a text and use textual references AO2: Analysis of methods. AO3: Evaluation of viewpoint and context. AO1: Identify information in a text AO2: Analyse language and structure AO4: Evaluate texts	AO1: Respond critically to a text and use textual references AO2: Analysis of methods. AO3: Evaluation of viewpoint and context. AO1: Identify information in a text AO2: Analyse language and structure AO4: Evaluate texts
Acquired Knowledge/Skills	This unit assesses students skills in analysis and comparison utilising poetry to do so. Students should also be building a knowledge schema on how marriage, sexuality, parenting and friendship change depending on context.	This unit assesses students skills in analysis of 19th Century texts, Students also explore the crafting of language and structure needed to write to describe and when narrative writing.	This unit explores the plot and themes of An Inspector Calls. Students explore the language and structure of the play and how and why J.B Priestly crafted the text. Students also work on their comparison skills and critical evaluation.	This unit explores the plot and themes of An Inspector Calls. Students explore the language and structure of the play and how and why J.B Priestly crafted the text. Students also explore the crafting of language and structure needed to write non fiction, transactional texts.	This unit explores the plot and themes of Shakspeare's Romeo and Juliet. Students explore the language and structure of the play and how and why Shakespeare crafted the text	This unit prepares students for their mock exams with Walkthroughs of Paper 1 and essays in Paper 1 Lit texts. At the end of the term pupils plan, write and and complete their Spoken language component of the GCSE English Language course.
Representation and inclusion	The way marriage was used as a tool for patriarchal power is explored alongside a variety of toxic and positive relationships. Family dynamics within different cultures and constructions form the basis of some of the poetry.	The presentation of class divide is explored in the novel, as well as the role of family.	Romeo and Juliet explore ideas around family relationships, women in society, patriarchal society and love and power.	Romeo and Juliet explore ideas around family relationships, women in society, patriarchal society and love and power	Romeo and Juliet explore ideas around family relationships, women in society, patriarchal society and love and power The presentation of class divide is explored in the novel, as well as the role of family.	Spoken Language study invites pupils to explore ideas and issues in society - previous speeches have been on the representation of LGBTQIA+ in the media, Black Lives Matter, the Ukraine War and the changes in society due to Covid.
Assessments	Compare how the poet presents... with a poem of your choice. P1 Q2. P1 Q3	How does Dickens present Scrooge in A Christmas Carol? P1 Q5	How does Priestly present Compare how the writers present their opinions and viewpoints on(topical issue)..	How does Priestly present (named character) in An Inspector Calls P2 Q5	Language and Literature Mock Exams Spoken Language study	